MUMBAI (PRINTED IN BHOPAL) | THURSDAY, 9 FEBRUARY 2017

Such an engagement platform is not surprising. A surfeit of reports on digital media and online behaviour indicate that India is among the fastest growing markets in the world. Active social media users grew at 15 per cent, since January 2015 to 136 million in 2016 according to a social media appearing educational with real people and nongated scenes," the report said. For FaceBook, the walls are an interesting way to deepen its engagement with users; a physical, touch-and-feel connection in its expanding virtual empire. It will be interesting to see if other online platforms follow suit.
